Novato High Will Have a Varsity Football Team for the 2017-18 Season

Novato... Monday, August 7, at 3 pm was the deadline to determine if Novato High would have enough boys to field a varsity team. More than 20 students came out to the football field for practice so Novato High will have a varsity football team this season!

After last week's announcement that the school would not be fielding a varsity team for the 2017-18 season due to a low turnout of players, word spread fast that the high school would not have a varsity team for the first time in over 50 years. The school received an outpouring of support for the program and Matt Baldwin, NHS Principal, sent an email to all families saying if enough players showed up for practice on August 7, there would be a varsity team.

The NHS football program will be led by Varsity Head Coach Kevin Keenan, Danny Kambur, Defensive Coordinator, and assistant coaches Casey Clancey, Donald Smith and David Keenan. Interviews are still taking place for two more assistant coaches.

With a strong Frosh/Soph football program, Novato High is planning to continue building a strong football program in the coming years.
